These words from the book of Isaiah, "When they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter; should not a people seek unto their God?" are the Golden Text in the Lesson-Sermon on Sunday in all Churches of Christ, Scientist. The Lesson-Sermon denounces ancient and modern necromancy, alias mesmerism and hypnotism.

One of the Scriptural selections includes these verses from the Psalms: "Deliver me from mine enemies, O my God: defend me from them that rise up against me. . . Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing; for God is my defence, and the God of my mercy." These words of Paul to the Romans are also presented: "Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good."

Included in the Lesson-Sermon are these passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "That evil or misery has neither intelligence nor power, is the doctrine of absolute Christian Science, and this is the great truth which strips all disguise from error." "At all times and under all circumstances, overcome evil with good. Know thyself, and God will supply the wisdom and the occasion for a victory over evil. Clad in the panoply of Love, human hatred cannot reach you."
